

1st INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON GRADUATE EMPLOYABILITY

Practices in Promoting & Monitoring Graduate Employability

11th of October 2012

Susana Fernandes Martins
ElpYou Manager

Employability – 360°

Best Practices

OBJECTIVES

Enhance and improve graduate employability

Prepare students to enter the job market, ever more competitive

Prepare students to work anywhere in the world

Employability – 360°

Best Practices

HERE FOR GOOD

Thank You

Susana Fernandes Martins

Employability – 360°

Best Practices

ACTIVE JOB
PROGRAM

SENIOR JOB
PROGRAM

Specific programs on Employability

Extra Academic Programs on different subjects regarding employability:

Labor market overview; self-knowledge; social networks; how to write a CV, preparing for a job interviews, among many others.

These programs were developed for traditional students and for students with a professional background .

Employability – 360°

Best Practices

Specific subjects on our academic plans

- > Specific subjects added to our academic programs
- > The main objective is to prepare our students to enter on the labor market
- > Examples:
 - Communication skills
 - Professional ethics
 - Criativity and critical thinking
 - Interpersonal relations
 - Management & Leadership In Teams
 - Image and Public relations

Employability – 360°

Best Practices

Events on Employability and Entrepreneurship

> iFuture

Range of events in which students have a direct contact with companies and with human resources managers

> Forum Alpha

Event with companies and entrepreneurs. This year's edition will focus on 02 main fields: innovation and entrepreneurship

Employability – 360°

Best Practices

Employability Department

Responsible for:

- Contact with companies
- To give support/guidance to our students on this field
- Advertise internship and employment opportunities
- Monitoring recruitment processes

